POST-INJURY DRUG TESTING POLICY

Doctors of academics(hereafter known as The Company) believe that it is important to promote a drug free community to maintain safe, healthy and efficient operations and to protect the safety and security of our employees, facilities, and property. Drugs and alcohol may pose serious risks to the user and all those who work with the user. In addition, the use, possession, sale, transfer, manufacture, distribution, and dispensation of alcohol or illegal drugs in the workplace pose unacceptable risks to the maintenance of a safe and healthy workplace and to the security of The Company's employees, facilities, and property. Substance abuse, while at work or otherwise, seriously endangers the safety of employees, as well as the general public, and creates a variety of workplace problems, including increased injuries on the job, increase absenteeism, increased health care and benefit costs, increased theft, decreased morale, decreased productivity, and a decline in the quality of products and services provided by The Company. For all of those reasons The Company has established this Post Injury Drug Testing Policy. This Policy was written to ensure compliance with all applicable state and federal laws.

SCOPE OF POLICY

This policy applies to all employees of the company.

DISSEMINATION OF POLICY

All employees will receive a copy of this policy upon hire and will be required to sign the Post-Injury Drug Testing acknowledgement.

DEFINITIONS

A. "illegal drugs": Illegal drugs means any controlled substance medication or other chemical substance that (1) is not legal legally obtainable; or (2) is legally obtainable, but is not legally obtained, is not being used legally, or is not being used for the purpose(s) for which it was prescribed or intended by the manufacturer. Thus, "illegal drugs" may include even over-the-counter medications, if they are not being used for the purpose(s) for which they were intended by the manufacturer.

B. Legal Drugs/Medication

"Legal drugs" Means prescribed or over-the-counter drugs that are legally obtained and used for the purpose(s) for which they were intended by the manufacturer.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING POST INJURY

The Company requires that employees submit to post injury drug testing within 24 hours of notification of injury on all injuries treated at a medical facility. Furthermore, employers may send employees for drug testing even if treatment is not sought.

SPECIMEN COLLECTION AND TESTING

A. Specimen Collection Procedures

1. Test Subject Privacy

Appropriate professional personnel will supervise the collection of urine and blood specimens for testing.

2. Chain of custody procedures

The company will take steps to preserve the chain of custody of specimens in order to ensure testing accuracy.

B. Specimen Testing Procedures

1. Specimens will be tested only by laboratories that are properly approved to conduct drug testing by the National Institute on drug abuse, the Department of Health and Human Services, or the College of American pathologists. Specimens will be tested only for the presence of illegal drugs, and their metabolites.
2. The company will rely on only on positive initial screening test results that also have been confirmed by gas Chromatography/mass spectrometry or other methods of confirmatory analysis provide for by the National Institute on Drug Abuse, the Department of Health and Human Services, or the College of American Pathologist (“Confirmatory test”).

C. Cost of Testing

The Company will pay for any drug test that it requests or requires.

D. The Results

The Company will promptly Communicate positive results to rest subjects.

E. Employees: Test Results Report

Employees may request, in writing, a copy of their test results report provided that The Company receives a request within five calendar days after the employee has been informed with the positive test results.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF TEST RESULTS

The Company will not disclose test results except as authorized by the test subject or as authorized, permitted, or required by applicable law.

CONSEQUENCES OF REFUSAL

Employees may refuse to undergo drug testing. However, employees who refused to undergo testing or who failed to cooperate with the test and procedures may be subject to discipline, up to and including immediate discharge.

CONSEQUENCES OF CONFIRMED POSITIVE TEST RESULTS

Any employee who tests positive on a confirmatory drug and alcohol tests required by The Company may be subject to discipline, up to and including immediate discharge.

EMPLOYEES: RIGHT TO EXPLAIN TEST RESULTS

Any employee who tests positive on a confirmatory drug test required by The Company, may request, in writing, the opportunity to explain the positive test results in a confidential setting, provided that The Company receives the request within five (5) calendar days after the employee has been informed of the positive test result. Furthermore, any employee who tests positive on a confirmatory drug test required by The Company may request, in writing, the confirmatory test of the original sample, at his or own expense, provided that The Company received the request within five (5) calendar days after the employee has been informed of the positive test result. Confirmatory test requested and paid for by the employee may be conducted only by laboratories that are properly approved to conduct drug and alcohol testing by the National Institute on drug abuse, the Department of Health and Human Services, or the College of American pathologists

POST-INJURY DRUG TESTING ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have received and read a copy of the Doctors of Academics (Hereafter Known as “The Company”) Post Injury Drug Testing Policy (hereafter known as the “policy”) I understand that the policy applies to me and that I must abide by the policy as a condition of employment. I understand that if I fail to comply with any aspect of the policy or test positive on a drug test I may be subject to discipline, up to and including immediate termination of my employment.

I understand that the policy supersedes and revokes all previous practices, procedures, policies, and other statements of The Company, whether written or oral, that modify, supplement, or conflict with this policy. I also understand that the policy may be amended at any time period the policy was written to ensure compliance with all applicable state and federal laws.

GENERAL SAFETY RULES

1. Job safety is our responsibility to each individual employee. Job safety often is applying common sense to a situation. Use good common sense and stay alert on the job at all times.
2. All injuries, no matter how minor, must be reported to you on site supervisor immediately.
3. Employees under the influence of drugs or alcohol, while on the job, will be subject to disciplinary options, up to and including discharge. If you are taking prescribed medication, you must advise the on-site supervisor prior to the start of the shift if side effects of the medication can affect your performance or can be a safety risk.
4. When you report for work, if you feel ill or are emotionally upset due to personal problems, inform your on-site supervisor before starting work if you believe your illness or emotions will affect your performance or will be a safe risk.
5. report any unsafe condition to your on-site supervisor immediately, even if the unsafe condition does not directly affect you.
6. If you are not sure how to perform the job you must stop and check with your on-site supervisor. This is for your safety and for the safety of your fellow workers.
7. Do not start or operate any equipment without proper authority and safety instructions.

Never operate a piece of equipment when guards or other safety devices are not in place.

8. Do not attempt to repair or tamper with equipment not working properly. report the condition to your own site supervisor
9. Any employee who is furnished safety equipment will be required to use such equipment while doing the work for which the equipment was furnished.
10. Good housekeeping practices should be followed at all times. This means clean tools, dry floors, maintain neat work areas and arrange materials properly.
11. Use the correct method for lifting objects. Lift with your legs, not your back. If a load is too heavy or awkward, ask for assistance.
12. All electrical power tools and cords must have an operational third wire positive ground. Electrical tools and cords without positive grounding should not be used. Double insulated tools must be marked.
13. Do not use flammable liquids, toxic materials, chemicals or acids unless authorized and instructed in the proper procedures.
14. As of July 1, 2003, Chapter 386 part II, Florida Statutes "The Florida Clean Air Act", smoking is prohibited in all enclosed indoor working places unless otherwise noted.
15. All employees who drive or are passengers, while on company business, must wear their seat belts at all times.
16. Obey all safety and warning signs at all times.
17. If you are treated by a physician or authorized medical personnel for an injury that occurs on the job, you will be required to submit to drug and /or alcohol testing within 24 hours from the incident time.
18. If you are involved in any accidents or injuries on the job, you will be required to submit to post-accident/injury drug and/or alcohol testing within 24 hours from the incident time.

I have read these rules (or the rules have been read to me) and I understand and will obey the rules for my own benefit.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
 Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
	_____ Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)		_____ Date

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2024 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2023 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2024. You had no federal income tax liability in 2023 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2023 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2024 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2025.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
3. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2024 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2024 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $29,200 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse; $21,900 if you're head of household; $14,600 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
